

Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) and Sanctions Compliance

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta (FHLBank Atlanta) is committed to full compliance with applicable laws and regulations regarding economic sanctions, including compliance with U.S. sanctions administered and enforced by OFAC. In this regard, FHLBank Atlanta has implemented a risk-based compliance program reasonably designed to comply with applicable economic sanctions requirements. As part of these efforts, FHLBank Atlanta has established standards by which the Bank (a) conducts economic sanctions scanning of (among other things) transaction data relating to incoming and outgoing wire transfers and (b) processes potential matches in accordance with OFAC requirements.
