Report Highlights

- Over $1 billion in total housing development – representing the highest single year total – was enabled by nearly $27 million from our 2020 AHP Competitive
- More than 3,100 households were assisted with purchasing a home or improving their home with $18 million in AHP funding awarded through homeowner assistance products in 2020, leveraging more than $602 million in first mortgage financing
- Adoption of the 2021 Targeted Community Lending Plan, representing a first generation plan that identifies and assesses significant affordable housing and community lending needs across the district and provides strategic products, services, and knowledge sharing responses
- Expansion of the Community Heroes initiative to include healthcare workers and COVID-19 essential workers
- Hosted Georgia Heirs Property Forum in March 2020 as a component of our diversity and inclusion initiatives

AHP funds enhance the economy of local communities through the Bank's shareholder financial institutions and their housing customers, developers, and partners. We thank you for your continued partnership with the Bank to support the affordable housing needs in your communities.
