

ALCO Strategies in the Current Environment

You're invited to join us for a webinar exploring ALCO strategies in the current environment with Joe Kennerson, Managing Director at Darling Consulting Group, on Thursday, October 20 from 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Today's banking environment is rapidly changing and becoming increasingly more challenging. In the last two years, we experienced a significant deposit surge and historically low interest rates, but today the inflation-driven rate environment is turning liquidity and deposit pictures upside down. Now is the time to address balance sheet risks through ALCO and reimagine your strategies. Join Kennerson in this strategically-focused presentation that includes:

- Case studies and strategies in the Federal Reserve tightening environment
- Deposit and funding ideas as rate competition intensifies
- Balancing near-term risk of raising funding costs vs. long-term risk of falling rates
- Ideas on how to develop a strategically focused ALCO meeting
- Effectively communicating your ALCO story
