Collateral Relief Extended to January 31, 2021

FHLBank Atlanta (Bank) has extended certain provisions of its COVID-19 Collateral Relief Program until January 31, 2021. The program was originally implemented in March 2020 in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and covers various aspects of loan eligibility. View additional information on the Collateral Relief Program here.

The following provisions will be extended until January 31, 2021:

- Eligibility of loans under a forbearance agreement due to COVID-19
- Eligibility of loans with electronically signed or imaged loan modifications or loan forbearance agreements related to COVID-19
- Postponements of 2020 Collateral Verification Reviews

Please note that the option to postpone collateral reporting will not be extended due to new reporting requirements for loans indexed to the London Interbank Offered Rate and loans under forbearance agreements that are effective with the September 30 collateral reporting cycle.
