

Discounted advances to support affordable housing and economic development

FHLBank Atlanta offers Community Investment Program (CIP) and Economic Development Program (EDP) advances to help financial institutions meet the housing and economic development needs of low- to moderate-income communities.

Pricing for CIP and EDP advances are typically less than standard advance rates, enabling FHLBank Atlanta members to offer their customers lower interest rates on loans while preserving net interest margins.

MEMBER TESTIMONIAL:

"Our institution is honored to have partnered with the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta to receive a $100 million CIP advance to help us fulfill our commitment of making loans and serving low- to modest-income members. There are thousands of families in our community who are at or below the area median income that will benefit from this investment. We are excited to help make a positive impact in their lives with the opportunities that these funds will help to provide."

BENEFITS TO MEMBERS

- Attract and retain lending business
- Achieve affordable lending goals, including potential Community Reinvestment Act credit
- Reduce funding costs
- Build your institution's profile and reputation in your local markets
- Access funding year-round – applications can be submitted at any time
- Help you meet your biennial Community Support regulatory requirements

CIP ADVANCES

CIP advances can be used to fund loans for the purchase, construction, and rehabilitation or refinancing of housing-related projects or activities that benefit families with incomes at or below 115 percent of the area median income (AMI).

Common uses include:

Single-family, owner-occupied home loans

Multiple-unit, ownership loans (at least 51 percent of the units are income-targeted)

Rental housing loans (at least 51 percent of the units are income-targeted)

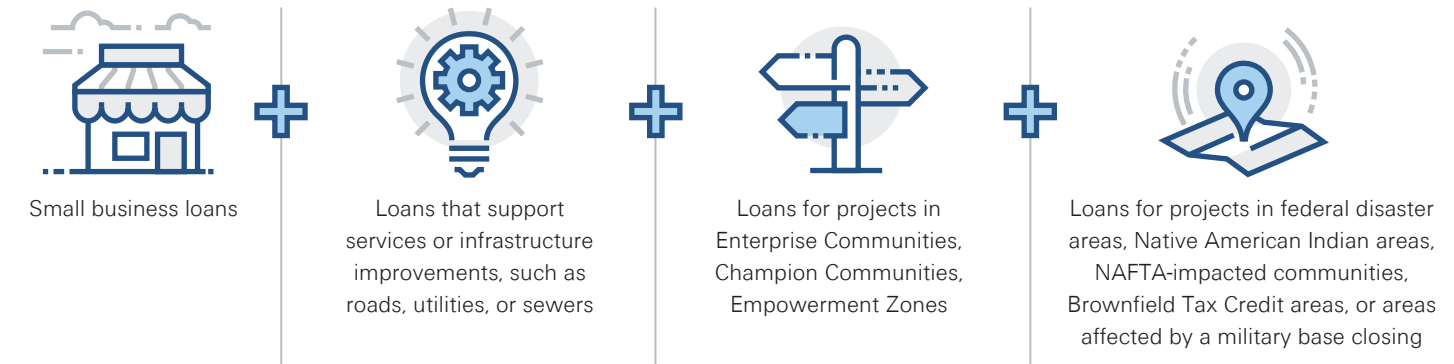

Manufactured housing park loans (at least 51 percent of the units are income-targeted)

EDP ADVANCES

EDP advances can be used to finance activities such as business start-ups, projects that create or maintain jobs, redevelopment of federal disaster areas, infrastructure improvements, and other economic development activities. Projects must benefit low- to moderate-income communities with a median income at or below 100 percent of AMI for urban areas or 115 percent of AMI for rural areas.

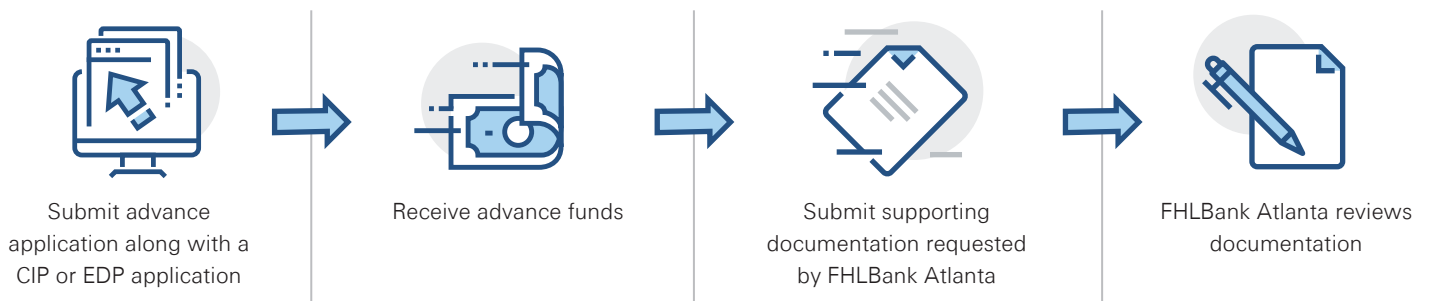

Common uses include:

ADVANCE TYPES AVAILABLE

CIP and EDP advances can be structured as Fixed Rate Credit or Principal Reducing Credit advances and are generally available for maturities of 12 months to 20 years.

HOW TO APPLY

LEARN MORE

For more information about CIP and EDP advances, please contact your relationship manager or the Community Investment Services team at 1.800.563.9650, option 3.

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta is not a registered investment advisor. Nothing herein is an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or derivative products. You should consult your own legal, financial, and accounting advisors before entering into any transaction.